Telling

Nerissa Lea, Chelsea Lehmann, VR Morrison, Marie Peter-Toltz and Anna Platten

Opening: 6.00 - 8.00pm Tuesday 22 July 2014

To be opened by: Maureen Gordon

Exhibition runs: 22 July – 22 August 2014

_Telling_ brings together work by five artists, Nerissa Lea, Chelsea Lehmann, VR Morrison, Marie Peter-Toltz and Anna Platten, who use narrative to explore some of their concerns, experiences and ‘psychological landscapes’. These narratives are of both personal and broader significance and employ the agency of materials and figuration as a means to engage the viewer in the specific context of story.

The exhibition is curated by artist Chelsea Lehmann and is Adelaide Central Gallery’s contribution to the 2014 South Australian Living Artists (SALA) Festival.

_Telling_ will be opened by Maureen Gordon on Tuesday 22 July at Adelaide Central Gallery in the Glenside Cultural Precinct.

For further information or images please contact Gloria Strzelecki, Gallery Manager, on (08) 8299 7300 or gloria.strzelecki@acsa.sa.edu.au.

Images; left to right: Chelsea Lehmann, _Providence_, 2006-2013, oil on linen, 196 x 146cm; VR Morrison, _Little Beast_ (detail), 2013, oil on mahogany, 50 x 50cm