Good Mother

Adelaide Central Gallery

Curated by Gabrielle Lane and featuring artists, Fran Callen, Zoe Freney, Jess Mara, Jess Taylor, and Fight for Self Collective, this exhibition explores the nuances of the lived maternal experience. Through a series of contemporary and experimental works, these six mother-artists challenge what it means to be a 'good mother'.

Opening Tuesday 14 August | 6 – 8pm

Adelaide Central Gallery is a not-for-profit contemporary art gallery located within Adelaide Central School of Art.

The Gallery exhibits a diverse annual program featuring survey and solo exhibitions of significant recent work from South Australia's most esteemed and celebrated emerging and established artists, as well as renowned national and international contemporary artists. It provides a learning resource for students of the School, who benefit from opportunities to engage with a professional gallery and make contact with artists, curators and writers.

The cornerstone of the program is the annual Graduate Exhibition, which presents outstanding work from each of our graduating Bachelor of Visual Art and Bachelor of Visual Art [Honours] students.
