Neck of the Woods
Hailey Lane, Jess Mara, Julia Robinson and Talia Wignall

Opening: 6.00 - 8.00pm Tuesday 25 June 2013
To be opened by Dr. Joy McEntee, Lecturer,
Discipline of English and Creative Writing, University of Adelaide

Exhibition runs 26 June – 19 July 2013

Neck of the Woods features the work of four artists: Hailey Lane, Jess Mara, Julia Robinson and Talia Wignall. Working in distinct disciplines, each artist delves into different worlds of experience, which are both poetic and otherworldly.

Both Jess Mara and Julia Robinson are graduates of Adelaide Central School of Art, while Hailey Lane and Talia Wignall both completed their studies at the South Australian School of Art, University of South Australia.

In her delicate paintings and stop animation film, Jess Mara explores the mind and memory and the relationships between fellow human beings and their surroundings. Inspired by Romanian folkloric traditions, Julia Robinson’s sculptures of goats continue to traverse the subjects of death and the supernatural. Hailey Lane’s photographs observe aspects of the uncanny and sublime that in turn expose the dramatic and strangeness of the natural environment. Talia’s drawings and paintings combine elements of recognisable earthly landscapes with those that are fantastic and galactic, and appear not of this world, to create a unique ‘inner’ space.

Neck of the Woods will be opened by Dr. Joy McEntee on Tuesday 25 June from 6-8pm at the new Adelaide Central Gallery at the Glenside Cultural Precinct.
