2016 Summer Sessions for Teenagers

Make art this January at our 2016 Summer Sessions workshop!

Join artists James Dodd, Julia Robinson and Luke Thurgate for 2 days of art making at the Adelaide Central School of Art. Hosted in our award-winning campus, the Summer Sessions program is for teenagers aged 13 – 18. Rotate your way through 3 different workshops based on drawing, sculpture and painting.

Workshops | Tuesday 12 January 10am - 4pm
Workshops | Wednesday 13 January 10am - 4pm
After-party | Wednesday 13 January 4pm – 5pm

Cost
$190 – All materials included. Morning and afternoon tea will be provided. BYO lunch.

All workshops have a maximum of 12 places.

Mural Painting with James Dodd
Learn some basic aerosol skills, get an introduction to stencil processes and make a collaborative, mega-sized outdoor painting.

Casting Stuff with Julia Robinson
Cast everyday objects in this workshop with sculptor Julia Robinson. Learn new techniques like press-moulding and plaster casting and how they can be used as the basis for making sculptures.

Big Drawing with Luke Thurgate
Go big in this drawing workshop with artist Luke Thurgate. Explore the effect of scale, as you experiment with different drawing materials and subject matter.
School Leaver Scholarships

Did you know Adelaide Central School of Art offers scholarships for recent school leavers? Check out our website or visit the School's administration team for more information. Applications for 2016 School Leaver Scholarships close January 4 2016.

Adelaide Central School of Art is an independent, not-for-profit, accredited Higher Education Provider that offers intensive training for students looking to develop careers as practising artists.

For more information about our Degree Program, Scholarships, Public Programs and exhibitions please contact the School:

Click www.acsa.sa.edu.au
Talk (08) 8299 7300
Write info@acsa.edu.au
Visit 7 Mulberry Road Glenside SA

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.

2016 Summer Sessions for Teenagers
Application for Enrolment

Please complete the application form and return with full payment no later than one week before the start of your course to:

Adelaide Central School of Art Inc. PO Box 225 Fullarton SA 5063

Participant
Parent/Guardian
Address
Suburb Postcode
Tel (M) Tel (H)
Email

How did you find out about courses at Adelaide Central School of Art?
☐ The Adelaide Review ☐ Word of mouth ☐ Web Search
Other

Payment method
☐ Cheque ☐ Cash ☐ Mastercard ☐ Visa

Please debit my credit card for $

Credit card number
Card holder’s name
Expiry date /

Signature

I have read and understood the fee policy (above):

Signed
Date

Summer Sessions fee policy
1. Fees are due to be paid in full upon enrolment.
2. Preference for places in Summer Sessions will be given in order of enrolment.
3. No refund will be given for absenteeism.
4. No refund will be given for full or partial withdrawal 1 week (or less) before the commencement of Summer Sessions.
5. For withdrawal more than 1 week prior to commencement of Summer Sessions, fees paid will be refunded less a 20% administration fee.
6. If Summer Sessions does not achieve enrolment targets it may be cancelled in which case fees will be fully refunded or transferred to another course.
7. In the event of Summer Sessions being cancelled, a full refund will be made.

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.

School Leaver Scholarships

Did you know Adelaide Central School of Art offers scholarships for recent school leavers? Check out our website or visit the School’s administration team for more information. Applications for 2016 School Leaver Scholarships close January 4 2016.

Adelaide Central School of Art is an independent, not-for-profit, accredited Higher Education Provider that offers intensive training for students looking to develop careers as practising artists.

For more information about our Degree Program, Scholarships, Public Programs and exhibitions please contact the School:

Click www.acsa.sa.edu.au
Talk (08) 8299 7300
Write info@acsa.edu.au
Visit 7 Mulberry Road Glenside SA

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.

School Leaver Scholarships

Did you know Adelaide Central School of Art offers scholarships for recent school leavers? Check out our website or visit the School’s administration team for more information. Applications for 2016 School Leaver Scholarships close January 4 2016.

Adelaide Central School of Art is an independent, not-for-profit, accredited Higher Education Provider that offers intensive training for students looking to develop careers as practising artists.

For more information about our Degree Program, Scholarships, Public Programs and exhibitions please contact the School:

Click www.acsa.sa.edu.au
Talk (08) 8299 7300
Write info@acsa.edu.au
Visit 7 Mulberry Road Glenside SA

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.

School Leaver Scholarships

Did you know Adelaide Central School of Art offers scholarships for recent school leavers? Check out our website or visit the School’s administration team for more information. Applications for 2016 School Leaver Scholarships close January 4 2016.

Adelaide Central School of Art is an independent, not-for-profit, accredited Higher Education Provider that offers intensive training for students looking to develop careers as practising artists.

For more information about our Degree Program, Scholarships, Public Programs and exhibitions please contact the School:

Click www.acsa.sa.edu.au
Talk (08) 8299 7300
Write info@acsa.edu.au
Visit 7 Mulberry Road Glenside SA

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.

School Leaver Scholarships

Did you know Adelaide Central School of Art offers scholarships for recent school leavers? Check out our website or visit the School’s administration team for more information. Applications for 2016 School Leaver Scholarships close January 4 2016.

Adelaide Central School of Art is an independent, not-for-profit, accredited Higher Education Provider that offers intensive training for students looking to develop careers as practising artists.

For more information about our Degree Program, Scholarships, Public Programs and exhibitions please contact the School:

Click www.acsa.sa.edu.au
Talk (08) 8299 7300
Write info@acsa.edu.au
Visit 7 Mulberry Road Glenside SA

James Dodd is an artist who has exhibited widely across Australia, in a range of contexts. He has a passion for creativity that occurs in public space and has been involved at various levels of street art communities for more than a decade.

Julia Robinson is an Adelaide based lecturer and sculptor. Since graduating from Adelaide Central School of Art she has exhibited widely in group and solo exhibitions in Adelaide and interstate. Julia’s approach to making is hands on and driven by a passion for materials. Her work explores folklore, superstition and rituals relating to the human experience of death.

Luke Thurgate is an artist and educator who grew up near Byron Bay. He completed a Bachelor of Fine Art at the University of Newcastle in 2006 and currently lectures in the drawing department at the Adelaide Central School of Art. His practice uses drawing as a way of connecting to people through interaction, collaboration and performance.